
2) EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

It is good to see a significant decrease in the site inspection score over the previous reporting period, this is now well below the NHBC all builder average. On a personal note whilst visiting some of the Bugler sites I would like to say that the standard of site set up is very high.

The senior management of Bugler Developments need to start thinking which of its sites it would like to enter for the NHBC Health & Safety awards.